- 1. UMC against the student.
- 2. Cancellation of Further Scholarship of the student.

IMPORTANT GUIDELINES FOR STUDENTS

1. University ID card is mandatory

- All students must have a valid legible University ID card, otherwise they will not be allowed to appear in an examination. The photograph and student credential should be clearly visible on the ID card.
- In case a student does not carry the University ID card due to unforeseen circumstances only, they shall be required to download and print the admit card available on the UMS path (UMS navigation → Examination system → Admit card) and show the same to the invigilator.

2. Student should not carry any electronic gadget such as mobile phone, wired or wireless earphones/headphones, or smart-watches. Anyone carrying the same will be asked to leave the examination center, and a UMC case will be registered for the same.

Note: - No additional time or any other form of relaxation or benefit shall be given to such students to manage their device's safe-keeping. Students must not indulge in any form of argument with the staff on duty. Violating the code of conduct of examination shall invite disciplinary action.

3. Check your pockets thoroughly to remove any paper- related materials to avoid UMC (Unfair means cases). Only university ID card and examination admit cards are allowed inside examination venue.

4. DO NOT write anything on the question paper except the registration number. Writing on any surface, such as skin or clothes, is prohibited and shall invite disciplinary action and an Unfair means case (UMC).

5. Check the course code and paper code thoroughly

Please ensure the question paper given to you is of the correct course code. For OMR-based paper, make sure that the paper code on the question paper matches with the OMR sheet. If you attempt the wrong question paper code or incorrect course code, the paper will not be evaluated, and no second chance will be given.

6. It is the student's responsibility to mark their attendance in the designated space on the attendance sheet. When marking attendance, students must correctly and carefully enter their Answer Sheet/OMR Sheet number in the provided space. Failure to do so, marking attendance incorrectly, or entering their details in another student's column will result in being marked as absent for the examination.

7. Student should submit the question paper along with the answer sheet to the invigilator before leaving the examination room or at the completion of the exam.

8. Reporting of question paper discrepancy

Student can report a discrepancy in the question paper through the following two methods:

- Reporting during the examination: - If a student observes a discrepancy during the exam, student shall demand the discrepancy form from the invigilator. The student shall fill out the form and submit it to the invigilator.
- Reporting after the examination: -
 - The student can also report the discrepancy in the question paper immediately after completing the examination by visiting the examination control room/examination center.
 - The discrepancy in the question paper can also be reported within 24 hours after the exam by visiting at the examination Window No-3 and Room No 32-101A. No Discrepancy in question paper will be considered after 24 hours from the completion of exam.

9. If you have a contagious infection that can impact the health of students and staff, please inform the examination staff. In this case, you are not allowed to appear for the examination. You will be given another chance to appear for the same on submission of a valid medical certificate in 32-101A (Examination Window) with no additional fee.

10. All students are required to strictly adhere to the gate opening time for entry start and gate closing time for entry close as listed below.

| Session | Gate opening time | Gate closing time |
|---------------------|-------------------|-------------------|
| Session 1 (Morning) | 08:30 | 09:15 |
| Session 2 (Evening) | 12:30 | 13:15 |

11. All students must reach in the examination room as per reporting time mentioned in the seating plan tab of the students UMS login.

IMPORTANT NOTE:

Further, all students are hereby informed that if anyone is found involved in any act that account to an "Unfair Means Case", then his/her university scholarship shall stand cancelled for the rest of the programme duration along with a penal action as per the university regulations.
